

What are sense organs?

Lesson Review

Write the term that best completes each statement in the space provided.

1. You have special organs that receive and process stimuli that are called _____ .
2. The _____ are sensitive to light.
3. The nose responds to different _____ .
4. Your _____ responds to changes in temperature and pressure, and also pain and touch.
5. Your _____ receive sounds from the environment.
6. Your tongue is covered with receptors called _____ .
7. The flavor of food is also detected by receptors in your _____ .
8. Your _____ is the largest sense organ in your body.

Skill Challenge

Skill: identifying

Match each sense organ to the activity it is associated with by placing a check mark in the correct column.

Activity	Eyes	Nose	Ears	Tongue	Skin
1. You feel the heat from a burning fireplace.
2. You observe that the lights have gone out.
3. You smell smoke.
4. You feel pain when you step on a tack.
5. You notice that it has gotten colder outside.
6. You observe that your food tastes salty.
7. You jump when you hear the horn of a car.
8. You answer the door when the bell rings.
9. You choose a perfume you like.
10. You stop your bike when the light turns red.

Answer Key

What are sense organs?

Lesson Review

1. sense organs 2. eyes 3. smells 4. skin 5. ears
6. taste buds 7. nose 8. skin

Skill Challenge

1. Skin 2. Eyes 3. Nose 4. Skin 5. Skin 6. Tongue
7. Ears 8. Ears 9. Nose 10. Eyes